PUBLIC SOLICITATIONS/ADVERTISING IN THE SCHOOLS

Soliciting

No person will sell or offer for sale within school buildings or on school property any articles or services, or solicit contributions, except those approved by the administration or the Board. This policy does not prohibit any school fund-raising activity authorized by the Board and the school administration.

Salespeople are prohibited from talking to teachers at any time during the teacher's class time. Salespeople representing educational companies may be granted this opportunity by making arrangements through the principal's office, at a time that will not interfere with the classroom work of the teacher.

The school directory lists of pupils and staff will not be made available to any outside person or agency.

Distribution of Literature

Printed or written matter of any nature will not be distributed to students in the schools or on school grounds without prior approval of the Superintendent. In cases where the nature of the material or its ultimate intent is in doubt, it will be presented to the Board for approval.

Advertising

No notices or advertisements by or in behalf of persons not officially connected with the schools will be distributed in any school building except by permission of the administration. All notices, even by school personnel, will be cleared by the building principal and, in case of doubt, by the superintendent.

Charity Fund Raising

The administration may select a special fund or charity project which is considered important.

This policy should not be construed as preventing a teacher from using instructional or informational materials even though the materials might include reference to a brand, a product, or a service.
